Dear Brother Mitchell:

John Meadows is a member of this congregation. He attends services here faithfully when not preaching in other places.

I have never heard Brother Meadows preach but do know that he has never stayed in any one place for any length of time usually coming home within a month or two after beginning work with the congregation. This maybe due to what I suspect is a personality problem. When completely supervised, Brother Meadows can possibly become a good man.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
